Privacy policies and complaints

You can find further information on how the Registrar collects, uses and discloses the personal information about you in the Registrar's Privacy Policy (<http://www.usi.gov.au/Pages/privacy-policy.aspx>) or by contacting the Registrar on 13 38 73 or email : usi@industry.gov.au The Registrar's Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and seek correction of the personal information held about you and how you may make a complaint about a breach of privacy by the Registrar in connection with the USI and how such complaints will be dealt with.

You may also make a complaint to the Information Commissioner about an interference with privacy pursuant to the Privacy Act, which includes the following:

- misuse or interference of or unauthorised collection, use, access, modification or disclosure of USIs; and
- a failure by Us to destroy personal information collected by you only for the purpose of applying for a USI on your behalf.

For information about how OCTEC Limited collects, uses and discloses your personal information generally, including how you can make a complaint about a breach of privacy, please refer to OCTEC Limited's privacy policy which can be found at www.octec.org.au

OCTEC is committed to maintaining your dignity as a client of our programs, through respect for your privacy and the maintenance of confidentiality in matters relating to your participation in our programs. We acknowledge and adhere to our responsibilities under the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) and aim to ensure that all personal information in which we come into contact is managed in an open and transparent manner.

If you wish to access information that we hold about you, you can do so by making a request to an OCTEC manager either verbally or in writing, and OCTEC will provide you with access within 14 days. If you feel that any of the information we hold about you is incorrect, you can request that it be corrected. If you believe that we have breached the Australian Privacy Principles, you can make a complaint to your case manager, trainer or an OCTEC manager either verbally or in writing, and we will investigate the complaint in a sensitive and professional manner.

USI Privacy Notice

If you do not already have a Unique Student Identifier (USI) and you want OCTEC Limited to apply for a USI to the Student Identifiers Registrar (Registrar) on your behalf, OCTEC Limited will provide to the Registrar the following items of personal information about you:

- your name, including first or given name(s), middle name(s) and surname or family name as they appear in an identification document;
- your date of birth, as it appears, if shown, in the chosen document of identity;
- your city or town of birth;
- your country of birth;
- your gender; and
- your contact details.

When we apply for a USI on your behalf the Registrar will verify your identity. The Registrar will do so through the Document Verification Service (DVS) managed by the Attorney-General's Department which is built into the USI online application process if you have documents such as a Medicare card, birth certificate, driver licence, Australian passport, citizenship document, certificate of registration by descent, ImmiCard or Australian entry visa.

If you do not have a document suitable for the DVS and we are authorised to do so by the Registrar we may be able to verify your identity by other means. If you do not have any of the identity documents mentioned above, and we are not authorised by the Registrar to verify your identity by other means, we cannot apply for a USI on your behalf and you should contact the Student Identifiers Registrar.

In accordance with section 11 of the Student Identifiers Act 2014 Cth (SI Act), we will securely destroy personal information which we collect from you solely for the purpose of applying for a USI on your behalf as soon as practicable after the USI application has been made or the information is no longer needed for that purpose, unless we are required by or under any law to retain it. The personal information about you that we provide to the Registrar, including your identity information, is protected by the Privacy Act 1988 Cth (Privacy Act). The collection, use and disclosure of your USI are protected by the SI Act.

If you ask OCTEC Limited to make an application for a student identifier on your behalf, OCTEC Limited will have to declare that OCTEC Limited has complied with certain terms and conditions to be able to access the online student identifier portal and submit this application, including a declaration that OCTEC Limited has given you the following privacy notice:

You are advised and agree that you understand and consent that the personal information you provide to us in connection with your application for a USI:

- is collected by the Registrar for the purposes of:
 - applying for, verifying and giving a USI;
 - resolving problems with a USI; and
